as amended

1. (1) Paragraph 2(1)(a) of the Milk Regulations, 1998 is repealed.

(2) Paragraph 2(1)(c) of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

(c) "new entrant reserve" means the bank of quota established by the DFNL to be held for new entrants;

2. Section 10 of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

Quota increase

10. (1) An increase in quota shall be allocated on the following basis:

(a) 60% proportionally to registered producers based on their quota holdings;

(b) 20% to the new entrants reserve; and

(c) 20% to applicants approved by DNFL.

(2) If the new entrant reserve is:

(a) less than 1200 litres per day, the percentage referred to in paragraph (1)(b) shall be allocated to registered producers in accordance with paragraph (1)(a); and

(b) greater than or equal to 1200 litres per day, then 1200 litres shall be distributed to a new entrant approved by DFNL.

(3) If the 20% referred to in paragraph (1)(c) is not distributed, the quota shall be allocated to registered producers in accordance with paragraph (1)(a).

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a quota may be available for distribution due to unusual or special circumstances as determined by the DFNL.

3. Section 12 of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

Minimum quota

12. The minimum quota under which a registered producer may operate under the Milk Scheme, 1998 is 500 litres per day.

4. Subsection 13(3) of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

(3) For new entrants, subsection (1) shall not apply until the beginning of the second year of operation.

5. Subparagraph 16(3)(d)(iv) of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

(iv) a daily milk quota of not fewer than 1200 litres.

6. Subsection 17(4) of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

(4) Notwithstanding section 12, if the proposed transfer will result in a quota of less than 500 litres per day, the DNFL may approve the transfer of the quota or a portion of it subject to the conditions that it may impose, if that proposed transfer would be in the best interests of

- (a) the applicant;
- (b) the proposed transferee;
- (c) the DNFL; and
- (d) the industry.

Qualifying Property
rebate

3. (1) Where a person is a recipient of a qualifying property and tax is paid or payable with respect to that qualifying property under subsection 165(2) of the Excise Tax Act (Canada), the supplier of that qualifying property may, on behalf of the government of the province, pay or credit to the person who is the recipient of the qualifying property, an amount equal to the tax paid or payable under that subsection.

(2) Where a person is the recipient of a qualifying property brought in from outside the province and tax on that qualifying property is paid or payable under sections 212.1, 220.05 or 220.06 of the Excise Tax Act (Canada), the federal minister may, on behalf of the government of the province, pay or credit to the person, an amount equal to the tax paid or payable on the qualifying property under those sections.

(3) Where a person to whom an amount is payable under subsections (1) and (2) is not paid or credited with that amount, that person may, not more than 4 years immediately after the date on which the person was the recipient of the qualifying property, apply to the federal minister in the required form for payment of that amount and the federal minister may, on behalf of the government of the province, pay or credit the amount to that person.

(4) Where, under subsection (1), the supplier of a qualifying property pays or credits an amount to the person who was the recipient of the qualifying property, the federal minister may, on behalf of the government of the province, pay or credit an equal amount to that supplier.

(5) Where the federal minister pays or credits an amount to a person under subsections (2) or (3) or to a supplier under subsection (4), the federal minister may deduct from or set off against a payment made by the Crown in right of Canada to the government of the province an equal amount to that paid or credited under those subsections.

Labrador building
materials rebate

4. (1) A person who has paid the tax under subsection 165(2) of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) in respect of building materials acquired for a home in Labrador may apply to the minister for a rebate of an amount equal to that tax.

(2) A person who has paid the tax under subsection 165(2) of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) in respect of the purchase of a new home in Labrador may apply to the minister for a rebate of an amount equal to 50% of that tax.

(3) A person who has paid the tax under subsection 165(2) of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) in respect of repairs or improvements to a home in Labrador may apply to the minister for a rebate of an amount equal to that tax paid in respect of building materials included in that repair or improvement.

Visiting forces
vehicle rebate

5. (1) A person who

(a) is a member of a visiting forces as defined in the Visiting Forces Act (Canada); and

(b) is not a citizen or a permanent resident of Canada; and

(c) has paid the tax under subsection 165(2) of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) in respect of a vehicle, may apply to the minister for a rebate of an amount equal to the tax referred to in paragraph (c).

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where a member of a visiting force is entitled to a rebate of tax under section 252 of the Excise Tax Act (Canada).

Claims

6. (1) The minister may approve or disallow a claim for a rebate made under sections 4 or 5.

(2) A claim for a rebate under sections 4 or 5 shall be in a form prescribed by the minister, together with the original invoice which shall contain the name, address and Excise Tax Act (Canada) registration number of the supplier, along with a description of the building materials or vehicle purchased and any other information which the minister may require.

(3) A rebate with respect to a new home or renovations may be assigned to and claimed by the contractor responsible for building the new home or making the renovations.

(4) A rebate with respect to building materials shall not be approved if the claimant has applied for or received a rebate or input tax credit with respect to the building materials under a provision of the Excise Tax Act (Canada).

(5) A rebate shall only be paid if the amount approved by the minister is at least $25.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the minister may approve or disallow a claim for a rebate made under section 4 where the claimant is

(a) a registered charity for the purpose of the Income Tax Act (Canada); or

(b) considered by the minister to be a non-profit organization, provided that the amount of the rebate under section 4 shall be calculated on the amount net of a rebate or an input tax credit referred to in subsection (4) with respect to a tax payable under subsection 165(2) of the Excise Tax Act (Canada).

Repeal

7. The Tax Agreement Regulations, Newfoundland and Labrador Regulation 31/97, are repealed.

Commencement

8. These regulations come into force on the day the Tax Agreement Act, 2010 comes into force.
