

RESIDENTIAL TENANCIES ACT

HEARING INFORMATION

Hearings are conducted by a Hearing Adjudicator

All parties are expected to prepare their evidence to the best of their ability.

In all claims, the Adjudicator will be interested in hearing only the information pertaining to the dispute.

The applicant, under oath or affirmation, will have the opportunity to state the basis for the complaint. The applicant may present any documents or evidence to support the claim. The Hearing Adjudicator will give the respondent an equal opportunity to defend themselves, under oath or affirmation. Any evidence may be questioned by the other party, therefore, documents should be available to support testimony.

A decision is based on the evidence presented at the Hearing. You must, therefore, arrange for the attendance of your witnesses and have important papers, documents and other relevant evidence available to show the Hearing Adjudicator. You must have your evidence with you on the day of the Hearing.
